

Resolution 2016-16

A RESOLUTION CONCERNING A LETTER OF ENGAGEMENT

Wherein, on this 12 Day of October, 2016, came the Kiowa County Commission and considered the matter of the hiring of a legal intern/assistant for the County Attorney's Office, Chay Howard.

WHEREAS, The Commission considers the difficulty in hiring qualified legal professionals in this rural part of Western Kansas.

WHEREAS, The Commission considers that it is difficult to hire a professional employee with a law degree without offering regular benefits involving health insurance.

WHEREAS, The Commission has been fully advised by its insurance specialists that it may author a Letter of Engagement to accomplish this purpose.

After discussing the matter, the Commission resolves as follows:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Commission shall extend a Letter of Engagement to Chay Howard for the position of Legal Intern/ Assistant County Attorney which shall include the regular health benefit package and that the same shall be made retroactive to August 1, 2016.

Passed and adopted this 17 Day of October 2016.
