

Kiowa County Election Canvassers Meeting
Courthouse Lower-Level Conference Room
November 15, 2022

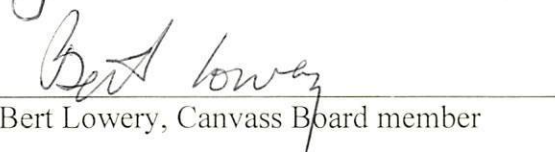

Matt Christenson, John Bertram, Bert Lowery, Shelly Tuttle and Kristi Cooper attended the election canvas meeting.

John called the special meeting to order to canvas the November 8th General Election results at 10:00 a.m. with the County Election officer, Kristi Cooper and Deputy County Election officer, Shelly Tuttle. John moved to appoint Matt Christenson as a member of the canvass board and Bert seconded motion passed unanimously. She presented the unofficial results in an abstract form and presented the information on handling provisional ballots. She informed them that she had a total of 8 provisional ballots for them to review and explained the reasons why they were made provisional on the spreadsheet presented. They were informed 6 out of the 8 would count and gave the reasons for each of them. Next, she opened the 6 provisional and read them aloud. After they verified their totals, John moved to approve the election abstract as presented to certify the results by the Kiowa County Board of Canvassers and Bert seconded, motion passed unanimously. Last she reported that they held their audit on November 10th with audit board members Matt Christenson, Corla Clark and Sue McVey and that they had 5 races to audit by hand count. Once the audit was complete, she reported to the Kansas Secretary of State office that there were no changes to the totals from election day. Last she reported we had a 64% voter turnout countywide.

Meeting adjourned at 11:16
